CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20505

23 JUN 1982

Ms. Susan Shekmar
Committee on Appropriations
Subcommittee on Defense, Staff
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Susan,

This letter responds to your request for a statement of the programmatic impact of a failure to appropriate the remaining [] million of CIA's 1982 program supplemental. You will recall that [] of the original request of [] has been approved for transfer from an existing [] appropriation. The attached table lists the entire [] requested in February 1982. []

The third and fourth columns total the [] remaining. The third column includes [] requested in the supplemental but for which -- because of the passage of time since the request and the time sensitive nature of the programs involved -- we have sought and obtained Reserve releases. As we have notified the Congress in the case of each of these releases, these amounts have been provided with the expectation that, upon enactment of the supplemental, these funds will be paid back to the Reserve. The Reserve, as of this date, stands at a balance of [] We foresee additional releases of [] within the next month or so, reducing the total to [] (The Congress has been notified of a pending [] Continuity of Government release. The others are now undergoing Executive Branch review.) If an additional [] is added by Senate and House Appropriations Committees in lieu of our request for funds for the interim overseas pay differential, the Reserve balance will still likely not be adequate to meet our needs. Failure to appropriate the [] million for payback to the Reserve will significantly affect our flexibility to respond to NSC and Presidential requirements until appropriation of our 1983 funds, which could be quite late in the year. With respect to the items in column 4 of the table, the consequences of not funding the supplemental are as follows:
